

Merrill Consultants Ltd - Press Release drafted 22/8/07

"Mekon Creatives Signs Reseller Agreement with Merrill Consultants"

Mekon Creatives, the leading Quark and Adobe Authorised Training Centre, has formed a partnership with the specialist IT Training company Merrill Consultants Limited that allows MCL to offer a range of Authorised Adobe training courses under the Mekon Creatives brand in addition to its existing standard and bespoke training programmes

Valerie Merrill, managing director of Merrill Consultants comments: "We are always seeking quality opportunities to improve the benefits our clients receive by engaging our trainers. Linking up with a class-act like Mekon Creatives is exactly in line with our strategic development plans. There are many training companies offering out-of-the-box courses which don't go beyond the basic requirements of client companies. We have positioned ourselves at the quality end of the marketplace where we can offer our clients tailored solutions to meet all their training and development needs."

Mekon Creatives specialises in Authorised Adobe and Quark training courses and value added recruitment services to the design and creative industry. Ed Wills, director of operations at Mekon Creatives, comments: "We are pleased to welcome Merrill Consultants Ltd. to our reseller programme and look forward to working together and delivering an extended range of training options to Merrill Consultant's customers. In Merrill Consultants we have found a partner that shares our passion for quality training and enjoys an excellent track record in delivering results-based courses."

The Agreement is effective immediately and the extended range of courses from Merrill Consultants Ltd. can be viewed on their web site at www.merrillconsultants.com

EDITOR'S NOTES:

About Merrill Consultants Ltd.

Merrill Consultants Ltd. is headed up by husband and wife team Stuart and Valerie Merrill who have been involved in the training arena for over twenty years in various roles of project management, IT direction, training delivery, scheduling, facilitation, technical and programming, help desk functions, coaching and mentoring.

They formed their own training company, Merrill Consultants Ltd., in 2001 engaging trainers with whom they had previously worked and whom they know to possess a wealth of experience and knowledge supported by certification i.e. Institute of IT Training TAP certificates or equivalent (teaching background), Microsoft or Lotus certified.

They work in conjunction with in-company HR, IT and Training professionals acting as a support mechanism for advice and expertise in new ways of working and new product development. Working with associate training companies where they have long-standing relationships, they additionally provide specialists or technicians for VBA programming, Advanced Access, Exchange 2007 and SQL Server 2005.

About Mekon Creatives

Mekon Creatives offers training services on all Adobe and Quark products at all levels on both Mac and Windows PC at its training centres in London, Surrey, Coventry and other partner locations across the country, including at client's premises.

The value-added recruitment service from Mekon Creatives includes the usual search and selection of traditional recruitment agencies with the added benefit of successful candidates attending up to three authorised training courses to ensure they are up to date with the latest tools and techniques required by the industry.
